

About Annemarie

Annemarie Silva has been a catering success in the Philadelphia area for over 25 years. Her culinary flair and personal attention to detail has put the finishing touches on Corporate Events, Bar and Bat Mitzvahs, Weddings, and Catered Affairs throughout Philadelphia, Bucks and Montgomery counties.

Annemarie has been a local attraction since her career began at the Legendary Ashbourne Market. Every client has benefitted from her exquisite menu choices and she has mastered the art of centering on cultural requirements. She has created in-home consulting services such as menu design, event coordination and selected tastings.

Her personal attention is guaranteed!